

MORNING APPEAL.

TUESDAY JUNE 17

BARTINE'S SILVER SPEECH.

To-day the APPEAL gives considerable space to Congressman Bartine.

On the local page will be found an extract from a speech made by him in the House of Representatives on June 7th.

It occupies ten pages of the Congressional Record and is probably the most exhaustive speech on the silver question yet delivered in the House of Representatives on this subject.

We publish this extract from Mr. Bartine's speech because there has been an attempt made in certain quarters of this State to create an impression that Bartine is doing nothing whatever for his constituents while in Congress and that he ought to step down and out and give place to some live silver man.

The speech made by Mr. Bartine is one which the APPEAL regrets it cannot print in full as it is straight for the mark throughout and is being printed and distributed over the United States by the friends of free coinage.

It places Bartine at once with Jones and Stewart as gladiators in the silver arena and whether the fight for free coinage wins or not his masterly effort will ever be remembered by the citizens of Nevada irrespective of party.

Too INQUISITIVE.—Robert P. Porter, Supt. of the Census is introducing too many monarchical ideas in the collection of statistics. Private circulars have been sent to physicians requesting them to divulge professional secrets by reporting the ailments with which their patients are afflicted. This the broad-minded physicians absolutely refused to do and they made public the attempt of the Superintendent to ascertain what does not concern him nor the public. Now the Attorney General and many other leading citizens of Washington publish a declaration in the papers that they will not answer the Census Enumerators as they are outrageous violations of the private rights of citizens.

Edmunds' bill for the reorganization of the Government of Utah if made a law, will effectually deprive the Mormon hierarchy of its political power and give the Territory to the control of those who will maintain the law of the land and the habits of civilized society. This bill, with the help of the escheated property of the Mormon Church devoted to educational purposes, holds out some prospect of turning the bulk of the Mormon people from the error of their ways in the course of time.

THE DETECTIVE CAUGHT.—Last week a dried up individual appeared in Battle Mountain and played himself off on Constable Hinman for a detective looking for a murderer. He seemed to have plenty of money. He remained around town for two days and when he left he took property belonging to others with him. He has been arrested and now awaits a hearing.—Central Nevada.

Free Coinage.

Questioned as to the character of the bill the Senate would pass, Senator Jones answered that it seemed quite probable now that it would be a bill providing for free coinage. He said an effort to secure the pledges of a majority of the Senate to vote against free coinage had been a failure and the inevitable result, he thought would be the passage of a bill including that feature.

A Terrible Disaster.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 16.—An explosion in the Farm Hill mine near Dunbar, Pennsylvania, occurred this morning. Only 10 men escaped. At least 40 men are still in the pit. It is believed that they have been suffocated.

Sullivan and Kilrain have gone on the stage.
